

Crystal Wash Load Tracker

Times You Did Laundry

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	Chart
C y
c l e s o f
3
0
l o
a d
s
1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20

21
22
23
24
25
26
27
28
29
30
31
32
33
34

At the end of each 30 days, charge your Crystal Wash units outside and in fresh air one afternoon. (You can place these units on your windowsill and open a window if you don't have a yard or a safe place to store them outside).

Once you've charged them, draw a star in the last column titled "Charge."